Australia’s ancient indigenous culture and natural wonders are centerpieces on the 11-day Discover the Kimberley Coastline: An Ancient Wilderness voyage, priced from $11,991 and sailing on six dates between May 10 and August 18, 2024. Venturing further into the outback to Mitchell Falls, a dramatic four-tiered waterfall that has been carved out over millennia, guests witness the renowned Wandjina (Kaiara or Sea Wandjina) spirit paintings whose origins remain shrouded in mystery and controversy. Sailing from Darwin to Broome, the cruise visits King George River, Hunter River, Bigge Island, Montgomery Reef, Talbot Bat, Buccaneer Archipelago and Lacepede Islands Nature Reserve.

Sunken wrecks, wall dives and coral-lined tunnels highlight an underwater exploration on Bega Island where pelagic fish, sharks, blue ribbon eels and octopus are plentiful.
